Musicians show their emotions and thoughts with the music they play and the lyrics they choose. With that in mind, it may come as a surprise to many that, while singers are indeed talented, most of them don't write their own lyrics. Instead, songwriters write the song and then they are given or sold to the singer. Often, that songwriter will even have a specific singer in mind when they write the song, but it may end up going to an entirely different singer or band. Still, there are some singers out there that write their own songs. While singer-songwriters aren't as common, they des
