To most of you, this book was not much more than a list of books, with only a few that interested you. To me, this book signifies a lot more. I started this year having lost my love for reading, and having never read a classic for fun ever. This book shows me the capability I have for achieving my goals, and it has cemented the fact that I really want to go study English at university. If you're curious about what I read in 2018, check out my new book '100 books in 2018' and continue judging me based on my book choices XD. Thank you so much for reading!
