If London's Natural History Museum held hide-and-seek contests, Charles Darwin's pet tortoise would be a champion. The naturalist's carapaced companion, plucked from the Galapagos and brought all the way back to England, managed to remain hidden in the museum's collections for over 170 years. Not that the credit can really go to the reptile. Darwin's [!]] Then the 150 million year old turtle got ensnared in a tug-of-war. Seeing that the turtle was scientifically significant, Farke noted, a bishop above the vicar suggested donating the fossil to a scientific society. The turtle got as far as the Natural History Museum of Besançon before Girod pointed out that he didn't want to part with the turtle. The Year of the Turtle is a storyline of the TMNT Adventures Comics, published between January and March 1996. It is the final publications of the comics. In it, Splinter becomes human again and Michaelangelo is mutated back into an ordinary turtle because of the energy from a mysterious talisman. It's not known if Michaelangelo is restored until it's revealed at the end that Hamato Yoshi tells the story for a Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle - Michaelangelo, who is slowly regaining his memory.
